KAISER WILLIAM REVIEWS THE MASQUE-RADING TRADESMEN.

How They Looked as They Marched Before the Emperor—Theatrical Events in Honor of the Imperial Guest—Affairs in Foreign News.

LONDON, July 11.—The Emperor of Germany remained in London until 5 o'clock this morning. At 5 o'clock the Emperor arose, breakfasted and attended to business with his secretaries.

Shortly before noon, accompanied by the Emperor and Empress, the Emperor enjoyed a good health giving ride in Botten Row, after which he inspected the Yeomen of the Guard.

The Emperor and Empress and their suites left for Wimbledon station. From that point the route to the parade ground was lavishly decorated with flags and flowers, reaching the parade ground at 1 o'clock.

Early in the morning the British volunteer regiments and the regiments of regulars were ordered to assemble at the parade ground.

With the early regiments, crowds of people from London and the country flocked towards the parade ground, where the regiments of the National Rifle Association were formerly held.

At 10 o'clock the Emperor and Empress arrived at the parade ground. The Emperor was accompanied by the Duke of Connaught.

THE PASTORS' HOUR.

Features of the Day at the Christian Endeavor Convention.

HOW THE CHURCH REGARDS THE WORK OF THE SOCIETIES.

Fruits of the Movement Throughout the World—Encouraging Reports From All Points—Emphatic Indorsement of the Efforts of the Young People—Delegates Enjoy an Outing on the Lake.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 11.—The early morning prayer-meeting was conducted today by Miss Grace Livingston of Winter Park, Fla. The regular session was again held in the morning. The morning's work was from the Lord's Prayer, "Thy Kingdom Come," and the first thing on the program was "Reports From the Worldwide Field."

With General Treasurer Shaw in charge, the states, territories and provinces were called on in turn and representatives of each gave brief reports of the past, present and future of the Endeavor movement in their section. Nearly all were applauded but none called as heartily as the colored delegate from South Carolina, Rev. Mr. Johnson, a colored delegate from Africa, was presented and greeted with enthusiasm. He asked to be read a letter received from Cuba, reporting a society organized there last night with fifteen members.

He sang, "Come to Jesus," in the native tongue. A cabigram of greeting was read from England. Japan also reported by telegraph. A message was received from Cuba, reporting a society organized there last night with fifteen members.

THE PASTORS' HOUR. Mr. W. H. Melan of St. Louis led in a short prayer service, and the "Pastors' Hour" was announced, conducted by Rev. J. S. Black, D.D., of Minneapolis.

Some twenty different denominations were heard from as to their experience with the Endeavorers, Black beginning by a brief talk on behalf of the Presbyterians. He considered these societies the "missing link" between childhood and mature life in the churches. Rev. Alfred C. Hathaway of Richmond, Ind., for the Society of Friends said his people accepted the movement because what they could get from and give to the Endeavorers.

Rev. J. S. Black of Minneapolis said that the movement had made better and more intelligent converts than any other of his own church. Rev. J. F. Cowan of Pittsburg for the Methodist Protestant, believed this movement was an increase of Methodism. Rev. M. J. McElrath of Topeka, Kan., of the United Presbyterian Church said his church believed in training the young and Endeavorers were the best of the best. Rev. J. S. Black of Minneapolis, who said he was first to introduce the Society as the most helpful aid of the church.

Rev. George B. Overton of Louisville, Ky., of the Methodist Episcopal Church said they took the whole Bible and the Christian Endeavor Societies suited them. Rev. L. Swath of Westerville, O., had found the Endeavorers of that church. Rev. A. Dev. Mason of Brooklyn for the Dutch Reformed church said in reply to the question of their strength, and that was what Christian Endeavorism was. The Baptists, through Rev. Jordan B. Hawstack, R. J. Kim, reported many successful Endeavor Societies. Rev. D. A. Graham of Minneapolis, for the African Methodist Episcopal, heartily indorsed the movement. Rev. A. J. Thirkell of Omaha brought greetings from the Lutheran Church in Missouri. The Reformed Episcopal Church said his church was fully committed to the Endeavor Societies.

The Southern Presbyterians spoke through Rev. R. C. Caldwell and the Episcopalians through Rev. C. J. Palmer. Mr. Sankey was announced by the Chairman as representing the "Church of the Holy Revival" and he sang "We Shall Meet Beyond the River," the refrain "By and By" being sung by the assembly by the congregation. Rev. Chas. F. Deems of the Church of Strangers of New York closed the hour by saying his church was simply a Christian Endeavor Society.

After a song Rev. A. A. Fulton of Canton, China, delivered the missionary address, his theme being "The Society for All the World."

MONTREAL'S BAPTIST. Although defeated at the convention of 1890 by New York, Montreal was again to the front and at the close of the morning session stretched a big banner from the gallery where the Canadians sat announcing "Montreal 1891." The World's Fair Sunday observance people had another meeting this morning and adopted the following:

Resolved: That it is the sense of this conference that we the delegates from the several States, churches and societies present, do hereby declare our support of the Christian Endeavor Society, and that we will endeavor to secure the widest extension of the Society for All the World. The following were appointed to draw up new resolutions to be presented to the convention to-morrow afternoon, and also to push the agitation of the matter after the convention adjourns: Rev. J. S. Black, of Indianapolis, Dr. McElrath, of Chicago, Dr. T. M. of Minneapolis, Rev. J. S. Black, of New York, Rev. J. S. Black, of Chicago, Col. G. P. Seale of Tennessee and T. J. Kirkpatrick of Ohio. This afternoon the convention is enjoying an outing at Lake Minnetonka.

BISHOP BROOKS. New York, July 11.—The Rev. Phillips Brooks is a bishop. When his consecration takes place he will enter upon the duties of his new office, the full title of which is Bishop of the Diocese of New York and New Jersey. There are fifty-two dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States and the standing conference of the bishops is held annually on the question of consecration. A majority approved of the Rev. Phillips Brooks, Bishops. There are seventy bishops, and the approval of thirty-five was necessary to assure consecration. A constitutional majority have now voted in favor of Mr. Brooks' favor. His notices of approval were sent to Bishop Neely of Maine, who is Chairman of the House of Bishops.

AN ABSOLUTE DIVORCE.

Decree Granted the Wife of Edgar A. Salter.

New York, July 11.—Edgar A. Salter's wife has obtained her divorce. The author of "The Face That Kills" and numerous other erotic novels has been declared by the courts to have been guilty of conduct unbecoming a husband and a decree of absolute divorce has been granted. The proceedings were secret and, although the decision was rendered on June 18, no inkling of the matter has leaked out. The only public step in the affair was the serving of the notice by publication when the suit was begun in December, 1890.

It seems that the writer of lurid fiction had been something of a man about town for some time. His conduct is said to have been worthy of the author of "A Transaction in Havana" and other realistic tales. When he appeared at Saratoga or Richmond Springs all the girls were anxious to meet him, as they thought he must be a very bad man to write such suggestive books. He was known in the circles of the English style. He is about 35, a little under the average height and has a thick nose. His complexion is as dark as that of a Spaniard. His hair is jet black and he wears a heavy black moustache.

Mrs. Salter openly accused her husband of undue intimacy with certain young ladies whose reputation had never been tarnished. The case, like most others that would interest the public, was quietly given to the referees. Hearings were held in private, affidavits were submitted, and the referee handed in his report. On June 18 the divorce was granted.

Not a line of the proceedings has been published, and even the fact that a decree had been granted three weeks ago has not leaked out until now. The rules of the Supreme Court are that no one except the parties directly interested or their attorneys can have access to the records or the papers in the case.

The decree is signed by Judge Lawrence, and dissolves the marriage, giving Mrs. Salter the right to resume her maiden name, Helen Kad, and to marry again. It frees Edgar from the bonds of matrimony, but does not permit him to marry again during the life of his former wife. He is charged with the costs of the suit.

THE BROWN COMPROMISE. BALTIMORE, Md., July 11.—After one year's litigation, the Alexander Brown divorce suit has been compromised, the court granting a limited divorce and allowing Mrs. Brown $3,000 a year as long as she lives. This decision winds up a most remarkable case. Alexander Brown, the son of the founder of the well-known banking house of Alexander Brown & Sons, while young he was intimate with young Laura, the daughter of his father's lodge-keeper, a very beautiful girl, who subsequently drifted into the world, and when next heard from she was married to a man named Hobson, by whom she had a son, who became a thief and died in prison.

Hobson, who was a worthless fellow, died soon, and then Laura became the Queen of the Baltimore demi-mondes. She opened a magnificent place on the corner of North street, and here she made money fast. In the second year of her marriage she was then as years old and very handsome. Brown was more infatuated than ever and besought the woman to marry him. She refused, but finally consented and on the day they went to Washington and were made man and wife. This scandalous prostration of the son of the founder of the well-known banking house of Alexander Brown, the country seat in Green Spring Valley, was soon after the fact.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown moved to Alexander, Brown's country seat in Green Spring Valley, where they lived for six weeks with the young couple. The judge, who was a friend of the young couple, was made to divulge them, but in vain. The spies here caused another scandal and eventually the case was taken to the courts, where it ended in separation.

SIMON LELAND SUED FOR SLANDER. NEW YORK, July 11.—The actress and elocutionist, Mabel Sterling, has begun a suit in the Supreme Court against Simon Leland, clerk at the Manhattan Beach Hotel, for $50,000 for slander. Miss Sterling's voice is the most beautiful in the world. She is the daughter of a wealthy family and was educated at the University of the Holy Revival. She is the daughter of a wealthy family and was educated at the University of the Holy Revival.

On our arrival at the Manhattan Beach Hotel about 2 p. m. on July 11, we were introduced to Mr. Leland, who is the clerk of the hotel. He is a young man, about 30 years of age, and is the son of a wealthy family. He is the son of a wealthy family and was educated at the University of the Holy Revival.

Mr. Leland, who is a member of the hotel-keeping family of that name, denies that he insulted Miss Sterling. It is true, he says, that she was requested to give up her room, but that was because the manager did not care to accommodate ladies who came unattended.

Don't forget to order your melons today from Peters, at French Market.

THE MUNICIPAL ASSEMBLY. Regular Meetings of the Council and House of Delegates.

The Council met last night with all the members present except Mr. Cole, Mr. Walbridge presided.

The Board of Public Improvements sent in ordinances for lighting rods in Forest Park, for improvements at the Poor-house and for repairs on the Police Station.

Mr. Meier introduced a resolution authorizing the Mayor, Controller and City Council to make a loan of $100,000 for the purpose of building a new bridge over the river.

The appointment of Michael Hester for Fire Chief came up under unfinished business and was referred to the next meeting.

Mr. Walbridge signed the ordinance authorizing the City Council to employ a tender to employ an extra man to clean the streets.

The bills to widen Delmar avenue and to improve the streets of the city were referred to the Board of Public Works.

The Council adjourned until Tuesday.

The House of Delegates met in regular session last night with Speaker Ward in the chair.

Bills were returned by the Mayor with his approval. Among them was one authorizing the Inspector of Weights and Measures to appoint a committee to investigate the work of the House-Work Investigating Committee.

Mr. Lehman offered a resolution authorizing the House-Work Investigating Committee to employ a stenographer to take notes of the proceedings.

The House adjourned until Tuesday.

Go to Peters at French Market for a good, cold, ripe melon.

FIGHT FOR A CHILD.

Sisters Contending Over the Guardianship of Alma Walter.

THE CHILD HERSELF WANTS TO LIVE WITH A STRANGER.

The Little One Takes the Stand and Sheds Tears Over the Prospects of Being Taken From Her Friend's Home—Judge Valliant's Decision in the Sedalia Water-Works Case.

"I don't want to go to live with my sister Ida, because when I lived with her before I had an unhappy life."

This reply was sobbed out by 15-year-old Alma Walter in the Sedalia District Court yesterday morning. She was the plaintiff in a suit to have her guardianship of the child Alma Walter, who is now 15 years old, removed to her mother's home.

Alma has the misfortune to be an orphan and possessed of $300, her share of her dead father's life insurance in the Sedalia District Court yesterday morning.

Her mother, Mrs. Ida Walter, who is now 40 years old, is a widow and lives at 2718 Gravois road. The sisters contending the guardianship are Matilda and Robert. Matilda is 18 years old and lives at 2718 Gravois road. Robert is 16 years old and lives at 2718 Gravois road.

The affidavit which brought the matter to the court's notice was filed by the sister, Matilda, who is now 18 years old, and lives at 2718 Gravois road. She is a widow and lives at 2718 Gravois road.

The court, after hearing the testimony of the sisters, decided in favor of Matilda, who is now 18 years old, and lives at 2718 Gravois road. She is a widow and lives at 2718 Gravois road.

Saloonkeepers' Attention. St. Louis, July 11, 1891. Saloonkeepers are respectfully notified that their semi-annual license is now due and must be paid to the office of the Board of Health, at the corner of Third and Olive streets.

THE MAGUIRES AND THE LAVANS. A Family Row Aired in the Second District Police Court.

The coal and shovel fight between the Maguires and the Lavans, living at 207 Howard street, was aired in Judge Faxon's court this morning.

The quarrel was the aftermath of an interesting street episode which occurred a few evenings previous.

The case came up for hearing to-day before Judge Woerner in the Probate Court. Both sides have employed counsel. Col. Robert W. G. Maguire represents the Maguires and Attorney H. A. Loevy appears for Mrs. Ida Walter.

SAME AS STEAM ROADS.

PROTECTION OF STREET RAILWAYS UNDER NEW POSTAL SYSTEM.

Under Postmaster Harlow's Plan the Government Will Be Required to Protect the Running of Mail Cars—How a Strike Would Affect Matters.

With the adoption of Postmaster Harlow's plan of employing the street cars for the collection and delivery of mails the lines will come under the same laws so far as Government protection is concerned as the steam and other post roads. In other words, any person who interferes with the running of a postal car on the Lindell Street Railroad Co.'s road will be liable to the same penalty as though he wrecked or maliciously delayed a regular mail car on the Missouri Pacific road. The street railway companies that will carry mails will become post roads within the meaning of the general laws governing such carriers, and will be entitled to the protection of the Government.

This feature of Mr. Harlow's plan of employing the street railway officials and their employees as well. The roads are all willing to carry the mail cars and are championing the plan. The plan is a very simple one. The railway employees, however, seem to be afraid of the coming innovation in the carrying of city mails.

One of them discussing the plan said that it would complicate matters in the event of a strike. "I may be mistaken," he said, "but it strikes me that we would be confronted with a lot of United States Deputy Marshals and other post roads. In other words, any person who interferes with the running of a postal car on the Lindell Street Railroad Co.'s road will be liable to the same penalty as though he wrecked or maliciously delayed a regular mail car on the Missouri Pacific road. COUNCILMAN MEIER proved last night that he has not lost his sense of duty to the public.

THE student-authors and their friends
have a particular interest in to-morrow's
SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH.

THAT alleged rift in the Council combine is not yet big enough to admit "the push"
into the municipal pasture lands.

THE State administration is entitled to all the benefit of the claim that it had not been for it, NOLAND would not have gone to the penitentiary.

THE publication of BARDLEY's second "confession" shows that the anxiety of several Philadelphia editors to have it suppressed as unworthy of belief was based upon excellent reasons of a personal nature.

THE announcement of the result of the student-author contest will be made in tomorrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH. The prizes have been awarded strictly upon a basis of merit, and the names of the winners represent the best productions of all that have been submitted under proper conditions to the Award Committee.

THE price of lined oil having fallen since the passage of the McKinley bill from 62 cents to 47 cents the New York Tribune claims the reduction as an effect of that law. The price has fallen because the duty on lined oil was raised. The price of sugar, however, has fallen because the duty was taken off. The McKinley law, according to its ardent admirers, is one of those good rules which work both ways.

RECIPROCITY does not always reciprocate.
During the ten months ending April 30 the exports of cotton goods to China show an increase from $80,707 to $97,072,
while the exports to Brazil have fallen from 4,017,000 yards to 1,420,488 yards.
This is very discouraging to lovers of American solidarity. If reciprocity cannot do better than this its effectiveness as a campaign device can hardly fail to be impaired.

ONE object of the duty on tin plate seems to be to protect the Welsh workmen imported to run the new tin works. That is, the American laborer is protected from the foreign pauper only as long as the pauper stays at home, while the manufacturer is encouraged to import his labor, which not only competes with American labor but displaces it. It will require many "newspaper articles" to make the beauty of this arrangement clear.

SENATOR HANDBOROUGH is guilty of strange carelessness when he describes President HARRISON's administration as "strong, clear and intelligent. Neither strength, clearness nor intelligence can be claimed by any man for an administration which tolerates Wamamakerism, TAN-

in which the Secretary of the Interior is opponents with a fine bit of irony.

THAT provision in the tariff law which enables manufacturers to sell to foreigners at prices lower than those exacted in the home market is not working well in practice. The complaints of exporters, however, are of use in calling attention to the fact that we insist on being protected we must pay the cost. We cannot look abroad for any assistance in spite of the

ROBBED THE MAILS

Charles Spore's Effort to Get Into Prison.

HE WAS UNABLE TO GET WORK AND GROW DEPENDENT.

After Taking Newspapers From a Mail
Box He Surrendered Himself—Strange
Assault on William Buckley of Carondelet—George Eichelberger Beaten by Robbers—A Rough Experience.

Charles Spore walked into the Central Police Station at the Four Courts last night
and said he wanted to surrender himself.
He was a shabbily dressed fellow about 40 years of age, weak and emaciated. His thin form was clad in rusty patched clothes, and his general appearance was that of a tramp.

"What have you done?" asked the Sergeant.
"I robbed the mail," he replied. "I am hungry and tired. I can't get work, and I want to go to the penitentiary. I took down the newspapers from a mail box and hoped some one would see me and have me arrested, but they did not. I can't do anything for myself and would be better off in prison."

The stranger told in detail the theft and surrender, and then the Sergeant remembering a recent decision of Judge Taylor
to the effect that taking letters or papers from the post box on the street was a theft of the mails, he told Spore he could not arrest him on that charge. As the man who robbed the mails was not a tramp, the police could not charge the stranger with petit larceny and he was told to go, as they could not accommodate him by making him
a prisoner.

"You can't arrest me for that?" he asked.
"Well, you will have to do it later. If fortune favors me, I will be arrested," and he walked out. The papers were taken from a box at Eleventh and Locust street and were addressed to J. A. Gratie of Hannibal, Mo.

A Strange Assault.

William Buckley, a prominent blacksmith
of Carondelet, was brutally assaulted about 8 o'clock last night, when three men, who were armed with clubs and knives, attacked him near the Market Square. Mr. Buckley received a horrible blow on the right eye, and was thrown to the ground. He was unable to get up, and the men fled. He was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying. The assault is being investigated by the police.

Beaten by Robbers.

George Eichelberger was assaulted last evening by several roughs on Sixth street.
Eichelberger is a switchman and was returning home from work. He was beaten with clubs and stones, and was thrown to the ground. He was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying. The assault is being investigated by the police.

Mr. Leary's Experience Last Night.

John Leary, a laborer living at 182 North Fourth street, was assaulted last night by three men. He was beaten with clubs and stones, and was thrown to the ground. He was taken to the hospital, where he is now lying. The assault is being investigated by the police.

Good Trap Shooting in Carondelet—Green- Reis Wrestling Match.

Yesterday morning Henry Green and Jacob
Young, the champion wrestler of the American Wrestling Association, fought a wrestling match in East Carondelet for $50 a side.
The match lasted for twenty-five minutes.
Green won the match by a technicality.
The wrestling was very精彩.

Sent to the Pen.

John Johnson entered a plea of guilty to larceny of the mails, and was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. Johnson was indicted for burglarizing Hawling Bros.
store and for stealing mail. He was found guilty by the jury.

Fractured His Right Leg.

Michael Beckert of 475 Virginia avenue
fell from his wagon, on Second Carondelet
and Geary avenues, and the front wheel ran over his right leg fracturing it.

CIRCUIT-CLERK BOY.

Bennie Ben Off With the Show and His Father Can't Find Him.

Benjamin F. Meyer, familiarly called Bennie, has been missing from his home, 20 pages avenue, since Monday morning. His father, Mr. Meyer, has been looking for him everywhere. He is believed to have been kidnapped. The police are searching for him.

Accorded to the Best Information.

Obtainable Mr. BLAINE seems to be in very bad health, but the gentlemen who are building a Harrison boom on the Secretary's illness ought to know that it is not safe to kick a lion until he is very dead indeed. Mr. BLAINE has given away two presidential nominations—one to GAR-FIELD and one to HARRISON—and a man who can afford to be so generous is usually powerful enough to have things his own way in spite of an occasional fit of nervous depression. The President's fool friends are running up a long account with Mr.
BLAINE which their chief may be called upon to settle at a time when he is least able to meet the draft.

HAD the Elton boy's bullet passed

through instead of whizzing past the German Emperor's ear he would have been remembered in history. The death of WILLIAM at this juncture might change
the face of Europe.

We Are, Just the Same.

From the Pittsburgh Post.
Because you feel good is no reason you are.

Mr. F. L. Marshall.

Representing the Post-Dispatch on Change,
will call on merchants who desire to make use of the Post-Dispatch market reports. This

TRUTH FROM CHILL.

The Situation Misrepresented by the Agents of Balmaceda.

HOW THE INSURGENTS ROAD THE STATE INCIDENT.

The City of Iquique Not Badly Damaged
by the Recent Bombardment—Method of Warfare Followed by the Government Forces—Revenues of the Rebels—
British Bombs.

New York, July 11.—A correspondent at Iquique, Chili, under date of June 19, writes that the situation of the Congressional party in Chili has been grossly misrepresented to the people of the United States through the medium of correspondents in the capital city of Santiago and also by those who have been traveling on the Government transport Imperial, that accompanies the torpedo cruisers Lynch and Condeal. To a person visiting this port fully posted, as he imagined, on the town in ruins, in a state of anarchy
and disruption of business, I found there were scarcely any signs of the demolition.

Certainly the destruction of the city was not so complete as the descriptions of the rebels' officers to permit the firemen to extinguish the flames. The intended operation of foreign residents is that the destruction of these buildings was the work of Col.
Soto, and the attacking war ships had orders
